

Dunalley Tasman Food Co-op

Creating and sustaining community through food and sharing

---

The Dunalley Tasman Food Co-op is a not-for-profit community run food co-operative. The Food co-op aims to provide access to affordable, healthy, local, ethical, wholefoods, environmentally & organic sound products and fresh produce.

Membership

Becoming a member is easy! Simply fill in your details below, decide which membership option is right for you and pay your fee. Membership benefits include:

Access to affordable products that are environmentally sound such as: organic, local and ethical (where possible)

Opportunities to connect and be a part of a community enterprise

Learning new skills and meeting new people

Membership options

Active Member

$20 annual fee plus minimum 4 volunteer hours per month

Active members receive a 20% discount on all products

Non-active Member

$20 annual fee

$5 - 3 month trial membership

Gold Coin - one off 28 day membership

Active member volunteer hours include these types of duties:

- assisting with orders/packing of new stock
- helping in the shop during opening hours
- administration duties such as, help with managing files, data and communication with other members
- general cleaning
- gardening
- cooking and preserving (must be done in the DTNH food production approved kitchen)
- manual/handy-person tasks
- collection and distribution of food

There may an opportunity to become involved in the committee to contribute to decision making and managing of the various tasks.

